this port. During almost the whole trip rough weather with very heavy seas was experienced.

The Warren carries as passengers

The Warren will take between 700 this great amount of coal she will hardly be able to sail at that time.

FLING AT GRAND JURY

SEVERELY CRITICISED IN THE POLICE COURT

In Connection With Report On Case of J. W. Hall, Charged With Rape—De Bolt's
Motion.

For the first time in several days Attorney De Bolt, who has the case of J. W. Hall in his hands, appeared in the Police Court this forenoon on behalf of his client. It was expected that this appearance of the attorney meant that something would drop, and those who believed this were not disappointed. Mr. De Bolt had been waiting for the Grand Jury to report on the case of his client, and therefore his appearance in the Police Court from day to day was not necessary. However, he felt that he had waited long enough and so appeared to make a motion for the discharge of the prisoner. Mr. De Bolt said:

"The defendant was arrested eight days ago and he has been in custody ever since. We did not wish to do anything rash and therefore desisted from instituting habeas corpus proceedings. We concluded to give the Grand Jury all the time that, in justice, it was entitled to. The Grand Jury has had ample time to report and we have given the prosecution every opportunity. We were given to understand that the matter would be placed in the hands of the Grand Jury immediately. To my mind, there is something very peculiar about a Grand Jury that cannot reach a decision in a matter of this kind inside of seven or eight days. I believe we are entitled to a discharge for want of prosecution and I would so move. This defendant has all his interests here and I believe that he could be found at any time the prosecution might want him. He could be arrested again in case the Grand Jury should find a case against him.

Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth stated in plain terms that the delay was not the fault of the prosecution. Almost simultaneously with the arrest of the defendant, the case had been submitted to the Grand Jury. That body had been working very diligently on the case and all of the many witnesses had been examined. "I am not responsible for the action of the Grand Jury," said Mr. Chillingworth.

Judge Wilcox: "It is a hard case.
I doubt my authority to discharge the defendant, for he is in the custody of the Grand Jury. I was assured that the report of the Grand Jury on the case was to have been handed in yesterday forenoon at 10 o'clock. There was no report at that time, and later on I met the foreman of the jury on the postoffice steps. I asked him when the report would be in and he answered that it would surely be ready between 2 and 3 o'clock in the afternoon. I have heard of no report since that time. I am very sorry but I will have to overrule the motion."

Mr. De Bolt answered that he was ready for trial immediately. Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth replied that he would take up the case as soon as he could reach it.

Judge Wilcox: "The Grand Jury is reprehensible. It looks very much as if they were waiting around for something to turn up. It looks as if they were going around with a fine-tooth comb hunting up evidence. Of course, habeas corpus proceedings could be instituted."

Mr. De Bolt: "That is just what we had in mind some days ago, but we did not want to do anything rash. I now give notice that in case the Grand Jury does not report between now and tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock, I will renew my motion to discharge the prisoner at that time."

Judge Wilcox: "Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof."

ARE READY TO ACT FOR CUBAN TARIFF

President Discusses the Situation With Leaders.

ROOSEVELT HAS NOTHING OF COMPROMISE TO OFFER

Bill for Reduction of War Revenues to Be Taken Up—Cuba Must Be Helped in Some Way is Official View.

New York, Feb. 15.—A special to the Sun from Washington says: President Roosevelt's recommendations for tariff concessions to Cuba, submitted in his annual message to Congress will be acted upon during the coming week. As soon as the bill abolishing the internal revenue war taxes shall have passed the House, Tuesday afternoon, in accordance with a special rule that will be adopted tomorrow for consideration of the bill, the Republican members of the Ways and Means Committee will hold a conference and agree upon a program for framing and passing the Cuban tariff reduction bill.
This program was agreed to at a White House conference this morning between the President, who called it, and Speaker Henderson, Representatives Grosvenor and Cannon, and Senators Platt of Connecticut, Spooner, Aldrich and Allison. President Roosevelt told the Senators and Representatives during the talk, which lasted for an hour and a half, just how important he thinks it is that the United States shall keep its written and unwritten pledges to Cuba, and said in language so plain that it could not be misunderstood that he had not weakened in the slightest degree since sending his message to Congress in December. Someone had reported him, he said, as being willing to compromise, but there was nothing for him to compromise in view of the fact that all he wants is legislation that will relieve Cuba's crying distress and make good to her the implied promises of the United States.

Before this had been accomplished the legislative situation in the House was considered and the President was especially anxious for information as to the program for the passage on Tuesday of the bill abolishing the war revenue taxes. The Speaker and Representative Grosvenor explained to him the rule that would be adopted on Monday settling the time for the next debate on the bill and providing for a vote at 4 o'clock Tuesday.

The President was told that the report of Representative Tawney, the Republican whip of the House, shows that there would be a majority of at least twenty-five for the adoption of the rule, although it is feared that a few Republicans under the lead of Representative Babcock may refuse to vote for the rule, being disgruntled at the recent action of the Ways and Means Committee in refusing to accept the Babcock tariff reduction bill as an amendment, or to accept any suggestions as to general tariff changes.

Another important matter decided is that the Senate will accept the bill abolishing the war taxes as it passes the House, with only such unimportant amendments as may be found desirable when the bill is under consideration by the Finance Committee. The House plan to wipe out all the war taxes will be agreed to, and the attempt at tariff changes or tariff debate will thus be checkmated. It was the unanimous opinion that there is every reason why there should be no tariff legislation at this session, and there will be none.

As to the precise form of the bill reducing the tariff on imports of Cuban products into the United States, there is still much uncertainty. Some Republican members of the Ways and Means Committee are adverse to supporting any bill of this kind. At least two of the gentlemen who were at the White House conference represent opposite best-sugar States, and they say that to lower the duty on Cuban sugar would be to ruin the best-sugar industry of their constituents.

In view, however, of the earnestness of the President's recommendations that the appeals of Cuba be heeded, and accepting the advice of their party colleagues in the Senate and House, these men agree to stand by the program of enacting a bill for Cuba's relief. The work will be taken up as soon as the war tax bill is disposed of Tuesday.

MADAME BISHOP WILL SING Madame Geneva Johnstone-Bishop has so far recovered from her recent accident that she is able to be about quite a good deal and there seems to be no doubt whatever that she will shortly be able to delight the music lovers of the city with a concert in the Opera House. She has a most excellent number of selections which she will incorporate in her program should she decide to give a concert.

It is seldom that Honolulu is given the chance of hearing such a noted singer as Madame Bishop and her appearance before the public is looked forward to with a great deal of pleasure by Honolulu people.

Another visitation of smallpox seems to be making things lively for the people of Iowa. The following particulars are taken from a private letter just received from a young man residing in Des Moines.

"We are having a worse scare of smallpox in Iowa now than we had two years ago. Surrounding States are talking of quarantining Iowa. Several cities, including Des Moines, have ordered vaccination, and are enforcing the order. In our town the vaccination doctors and officers cornered the Board of Trade and vaccinated every person in the room, including spectators. The pest houses have many occupants and many houses are displaying yellow cards. The superintendent of schools has publicly said, "We are all bound to have the disease, and the children had better have it now"—in other words, lift the quarantine. The deaths are few from the disease, only three here this year—two young babies whose mothers had it, and one man who was about ready to die from other causes.

"My wife and I have been living in an apartment house. The lady next door took the disease and the whole building was quarantined for thirty days. I got news that the place would be quarantined before the police had time to get there. I rushed home to get my wife out of the building, but she was not there and the door was locked, and I could not get out any clothing. Going back down town I met her on the street and took her to a boarding house. We had to buy changes of clothing to last till we could get into our own home."

Mr. and Mrs. John Ena will very probably leave for Hanalei, Kauai, this afternoon. Mr. Ena wishes to inspect the new loading facilities there.
The return will be made Friday afternoon, arriving here Saturday morning.

The regular monthly meeting of the Honolulu and Hoola Lahui Society was held this forenoon at the Kaplalani Maternity Home on Beretania street.
The following officers were chosen to serve during the ensuing year: Honorary presidents, Prince David Kawananakoa and Prince Jonah Kalaniana-'ole; president, Princess Kawananakoo; first vice president, Mrs. Samuel Parker; second vice president, Princess Kalaniana'ole; and secretary, Mrs.
Manuel Reis. At the same meeting the following board of directors and trustees were chosen:

Board of Directors—Mrs. Samuel Parker, Mrs. E. S. Cunha, Mrs. John M. Dowsett, Mrs. Walter Giffard, Miss Lucy P. Peabody, Miss Agnes McIntyre, Mrs. Pierre Jones, Mrs. J. F.
Bowler and Mrs. Carl Holloway. Mrs.
Agnes McIntyre is the chairman of the board, Mrs. Pierre Jones the treasurer and Mrs. J. F. Bowler the secretary.

Board of Trustees—Prince and Princess Kalaniana'ole, Mrs. John M. Dow-sett, Miss Lucy Peabody, Mrs. F. W.
Macfarlane, Mrs. Alex. Macintosh and Mrs. E. S. Cunha. The last named lady is the chairman of the board of trustees.

The following report of the treasurer of the Kaplalani Maternity Home was read at the meeting:

To the President, Officers and Members of the Honolulu and Hoola Lahui Society,

Your Highnesses and Ladies: I would herewith present my annual report as treasurer.

Our financial standing for the year ending January 31, 1902, is as follows: Balance on hand, Feb. 1, 1901, $1533.53 Amount of receipts for the year 4737.56 Total $6271.09

The $100 a month from the estate of the late Queen Dowager Kaplalani has reached the sum of $3200. This money is in the hands of a special committee for investment, this committee being also commissioned to invest all monies accruing from other sources.

The expenditures for the past year have amounted to $5002.75. This amount may seem large, but it must be borne in mind that new sidewalks have been built and curbed, fences repaired and architects' fees for plans for the proposed addition to the home, paid. This addition was intended to be used as a surgical department for women, and the project had the hearty endorsement of all our leading physicians. Last March a luncheon was given to raise funds for this object and several generous donations were received, but the total amount realized was not sufficient to warrant the beginning of this work. We are still hoping that money will be forthcoming to enable us to begin this work during the coming year.

The number of births in the home during the past year was 54.
I take great pleasure in reporting the excellent condition of the home.
Everything is always in first class order and thorough neatness prevails throughout the premises.

I must also allude to the marriage of our president, Princess David Kawananakoa and think that I am only voicing the sentiments of all in wishing himself and his bride all joy and happiness.

We must most glad to welcome home the Prince and Princess Kalaniana'ole after their foreign tour of nearly two years' duration.

I cannot close my report without alluding to the devoted and painstaking attendance of our physician, Dr. Hodgins, to whom, aided by the matron, is due the excellent condition of the home.

Respectfully submitted,
FLORA JONES,
Treasurer Kaplalani Maternity Home.

FASTER THAN A WALK.
In the Police Court this forenoon Tom Kanolea, a native driver for a local draymen's firm, was fined $2 and costs on the charge of driving his dray horses faster than a walk. Commenting on the case, Judge Wilcox said:
"Your employers state that they have told you many times not to drive your horses faster than a walk. I know all about that. They tell you not to drive faster than a walk and then they curse you and ask you what has made you so long in making your trips. I have had experience with this kind of thing before."

BALDWIN NO CANDIDATE

Senator H. P. Baldwin was asked today by a Bulletin reporter if he had anything to say about the use of his name as a possible candidate for the Governorship in the event of a vacancy.
His answer was that he could not think of such a candidacy for a moment.
With a laugh he said he had to go to work again in his old age. Since assuming the superintendence of the Hawaiian Commercial and Sugar Company's plantation, having besides the oversight of several other estates, his time would be very closely occupied.
High prices and scarcity of labor had demanded his best attention to the several properties in which he was interested.

II SUIT COMPROMISED

ANNOUNCEMENT MADE BY ATTORNEY DUNNE

New Trial of Honolulu Plantation Company Set for Monday--Subject of Portugal Naturalized.

The condemnation suit of the United States against the John H. Estate, Limited, has been settled out of court.
This fact was announced in the Federal Court this morning by Acting District Attorney J. J. Dunne. All of the jurors not excused yesterday answered their names and were excused until next Monday morning.

At that time the new trial of the condemnation suit against the Honolulu Plantation Company will be called on.

In the II Estate matter, after long endeavors on the part of the Federal Attorney, a compromise on the price to be paid was reached. The subject of the suit is the fee simple of a strip of land, the leasehold of which was surrendered by the Oahu Sugar Company for the nominal consideration of one dollar. The company made this concession on condition that the main portion of the leasehold, consisting of Ford's Island, used for growing cane, should be left alone. There is an area of twenty-four acres in the part conveyed, taking a width of one hundred feet along the southeastern shore of Ford's Island. The lease of the island has seventeen years to run.
To ratify the compromise a resolution will be passed by the Estate shareholders, after which a deed to be drawn by Mr. Dunne will be delivered to the United States, the whole transaction being subject to approval at Washington.

The price has not been divulged as yet, but probably is between $3000 and $5000.

Judge Esteé made a citizen of Pedro A. Dias, native of Madeira and subject of Portugal.

A recess was taken until 11 o'clock, at which hour it was expected J. A.
Breckons, the new District Attorney, would appear and be sworn into office. As he had not arrived at the hour, in a few minutes another recess was taken until 2 o'clock.

ORME'S DOUBLE WELFARE.
Norman Orme, formerly a clerk in the Honolulu postoffice and one of those who went out in the strike early last year, has received a position in the Treasury department, Washington. A letter received in the Alameda mail by one of Orme's old friends here adds to the foregoing information the interesting fact that the writer was soon to marry a Washington bride. Orme was one of Roosevelt's Rough Riders and among the first to be wounded at San Juan. He was well liked by the Colonel and other officers and it would seem the former as President has not forgotten him.

excellent condition of the home.
throughout the premises.

nanakoa and think that I am only
happiness.

years' duration.

I cannot close my report without al-
home.

Respectfully submitted,
FLORA JONES,
